

Terms of delivery & sale Gouda Holland BV

General

The latest applicable General conditions for the Mechanical and Electro technical Engineering Industry published by the FME-CWM and deposited at the office of the Register of the District Court at The Hague. As well as conditions which could be published and deposited as a replacement by the Association for the Engineering and Electrical Industry (FME-CWM), shall govern all quotations and contracts, where deliveries and/ or services to be performed by Gouda Holland BV in Haastrecht, the Netherlands are concerned. This as far as it is not explicitly determined otherwise.

The general conditions of Gouda Holland BV in addition to the FME-CWM terms:

Article III paragraph 2 Price-Extra work

For practical reasons, extra work shall only be performed upon receipt of a written order from the principal. Article III, paragraph 2 FME-CWM terms, however, still applies.

Article IV paragraph 1 + VI paragraph 3 Price and delivery

Notwithstanding these articles, deliveries within the Netherlands will be free of charge, not unloaded at the agreed destination.

For orders of €350,00 nett or less, the client will be charged €50,00 for dispatch and administration costs. If, at request of the client, goods have to be sent by express delivery, the costs thereof will be charged to the client.

Article IV paragraph 5 Packaging

Notwithstanding this article, the common Gouda Holland BV standard packaging for delivery within the Netherlands is included in the price.

Article VI paragraph 1b Delivery time

Article VI paragraph 1b also applies to the technical (installation) drawings approved by the principal for production and/or assembly.

Article X paragraph 1 Payment

Notwithstanding article X, payment should be made within 30 days nett after the date of the invoice, unless agreed upon otherwise.

Returning of goods

Products will not be taken back without our written consent. Products to be taken back will have to be in the original condition and be delivered free of charge to our warehouse in Haastrecht in the original packaging (if applicable) after our consent for taking back products has been received. The materials can only be returned if the delivery is not older than 6 months.

Upon receipt, returned products shall be assessed for stock appropriateness by the supplier. Stock appropriate products will be credited of the nett invoiced amount less 25% of the value of the products based on the current pricelist prices which was valid at the moment the goods were ordered. Gouda Holland BV only takes returned materials in consideration which have a nett charged amount of at least €350,00.

Gouda Holland BV only accepts returned materials which have been confirmed by our company.

The return of specific manufactured products as well as lacquered, hot dip galvanized goods and/or unlisted materials, can not be accepted.

All previous pricelists have been superseded herewith.