

Gouda Holland stands for fast-growing and customer-orientated.

Active on the market since 1929 and part of the international family business Niedax Group since 2013 – specialized in cable support systems for over 100 years.

And our products offer solutions for many industrial installations in, among others, the (petro)chemical, data/telecom, rail, infrastructure, (renewable) energy, maritime, on- & offshore and food industry.

DO YOU want to be part of an internationally growing company and a friendly team? Don't wait and apply today!

Assembler / Welder (full-time / dayshift)

What are you going to do?

- assembling / welding our solutions
- assembling / welding light constructions
- MIG/MAG, as well as TIG, welding on steel and stainless steel
- in addition to manual welding, also controlling a welding line and welding robot
- performing product checks on dimensions and visual inspection for quality

Who are you?

- technical insight, or a diploma LBO metal
- you have at least one year of relevant work experience
- you can read drawing, or would like to learn it
- you are accurate and have an eye for quality & safety
- experience in metalworking, or you like to learn this
- VCA Basic, or you would like to get it
- forklift certificate, or you would like to get it

What's in it for you?

- a great place to work in an open organization
- appropriate salary in accordance Collective Labor Agreement Metalelectro
- an opportunity to follow relevant further education and courses
- full-time employment
- a super fun and driven team of colleagues

Curious or interested? Apply now!

- Send your motivation or CV to: vacature@goudaholland.nl
- Want to speak to a colleague? Call 0182 - 506 200 and ask for Remco Boer